

To guide refugees and immigrants in the journey toward self-determination and social equality

CAPI SPONSORS EVENT TO EDUCATE BHUTANESE REFUGEES ON SAFETY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

Minneapolis, Minn (October 21, 2009) – Bhutanese refugees, arriving from Nepal, are the newest arrivals to Minnesota. CAPI’s Refugee Resource Manager, Mangala Sharma, a Bhutanese community advocate and leader, organizes an interactive community event to educate the Bhutanese refugees about the law enforcement system, tips on safety and hazardous, and how to take care of oneself in severe weather.

The event will take place in the City of Lauderdale’s Community Center on October 24, 2009 from 3pm-5 pm. It is organized by the Nirvana Center and is sponsored by Center for Victims of Torture, and CAPI.

CONTACT:

Mangala Sharma

612.721.0122(119)

mangala.sharma@capiusa.org