

SOARING TOWARD GENDER DEMOCRACY: A Community Dialogue Refugee & Immigrant Women for Change

St. Catherine University | Tuesday, March 8, 2011

Speak. Learn. Connect for Gender Equity on the 100th anniversary of International Women’s Day

Program: 3:00 – 5:00 pm
Reception: 5:00 – 6:30 pm

Rauenhorst Hall, 3rd floor
270 Coeur de Catherine Student Center
St. Catherine University –St. Paul

O’Shaughnessy parking lot
510 Fairview Avenue, Gate 4

RSVP by March 4th to:
RIWCNOW@capiusa.org

FREE community event

Hear through performance the community feedback collected in 2010 on refugee and immigrant views about gender equity

Speakers:

Mariam Mohammed, Somali health and education advocate
Doris Parker, Executive Director, Liberian Women’s Initiatives – MN
Kabo Yang, Board Chair, Professional Hmong Women Association

Performance:

Ananya Dance Theatre led by artist-educator, Dr. Ananya Chatterjea
Writers, Kao Kalia Yang and Lori Young Williams

Artwork by: Marisa Martinez and Centro youth group

Achieving gender equity for refugee and immigrant women and families together
RIWC at www.capiusa.org

Sponsors

