

V

D

A

N

A

M

Muslim Advocacy Network Against Domestic Violence

A collaboration between Peaceful Families Project and the Asian & Pacific Islander Institute on Domestic Violence

The Muslim Advocacy Network Against Domestic Violence (MANADV) is a national network comprised of predominantly Muslim advocates addressing domestic violence in Muslim communities through diverse faith-based and mainstream approaches and agencies. This network is a coordinated effort to empower survivors, deepen advocacy, strengthen families, and organize communities in the prevention and intervention of domestic violence.

PURPOSE

- Strengthen Culturally Appropriate Advocacy
- Encourage Dialogue & Collaboration
- Develop Models & Analyses
- Disseminate Resources

MEMBERS

- Advocates
- Service Providers
- Legal & Health Care Professionals
- Activists
- Researchers
- Scholars
- Community Based Organizations

BENEFITS

- National Network of Shared Resources
- Building Alliances
- Strategizing on Prevention & Intervention
- Receive Periodic Digests via Sharifa's List

RESOURCES

- Bibliographies
- Statistics
- Directory of Service Providers
- Community Forums Directory
- Translated Materials
- Tips & Tools
- Funding Opportunities

JOIN US

Join Sharifa's List, named in honor of Sharifa Alkhateeb's groundbreaking advocacy on behalf of Muslims, to become a MANADV member and obtain information on resources, publications, trainings, and events.

Visit www.manadv.org to join Sharifa's list. For questions email info@manadv.org. To share news of relevant events, initiatives, and resources, send an email to news@manadv.org.