

Meeting the needs of today, to prepare for a better tomorrow

For almost 40 years, CAPI has been providing immigrants, refugees, and communities of color, hope and a way forward.

On-site Food Shelf

Distributing over 300,000
lbs of food a year

Fresh Produce

Serving over 800
households seasonally

Social Services

Inclusive and individualized support

Not only does CAPI connect those under served in our communities with full pantries, we're also there to offer employment support, training, financial coaching, and other programming to remove barriers so our members can thrive.

ORGANIZE A FOOD AND FUND DRIVE

Partner with your colleagues, congregation, or family and friends, to support CAPI's food shelf by providing healthy staples to our communities.

VOLUNTEER

We have ongoing volunteer opportunities for individuals, groups, and youth ages 13 and older. We welcome you to join us!

DONATE

CAPI is able to purchase in bulk at great prices. We can make your dollar stretch further and ensure more folks are fed and their pantries are kept full.
